

10. What is a Uniserve representative and what does he/she do?

- Uniserve representatives are local and county field service representatives of the New Jersey Education Association (NJEA). They train and assist local education associations and their leaders and help them coordinate their local efforts with state-national resources, including negotiations, public relations, communications, political activities, organizational management.