

13. What are the benefits to the Board to prolong negotiations?

- It is in the best interest of the Board to arrive at a mutually agreeable resolution to negotiations as quickly as possible.
- There aren't any financial or personal benefits to members of the Board or to the district to prolong negotiations.
- Members of the Board are volunteers who are working towards the best interest of the school and community. To a person, the Board always strives for an expedient and mutually beneficial contract resolution.
- Hours of preparation go into every negotiations session over and above the normal requirements of the negotiations committee and other Board related responsibilities.