

2. Is the impasse document that the Board filed, requesting a mediator, available to the public? Did the Board file an addendum with the impasse form?

- The impasse form and an addendum were filed with the Public Employees Relations Commission (PERC).
- The impasse addendum was written to emphasize the need for the Public Employees Relations Commission (PERC) to intervene and assist both parties come to an agreement.
- While impasse documents and the addendum filed with PERC are publically available by law, subject to an OPRA filing, the Clinton Township Board of Education posted these documents on our district website on Tuesday, February 27, 2018. www.ctsdnj.org
