

7. We have heard the leadership of the Board has been in place for the last 10 to 15 years, and this is why negotiations continues to have problems coming to resolution. Is this true?

- The leadership of the Board has not been in place for 10-15 years. The Board's leadership, the negotiations team and all of the members of the Board have turned over multiple times during the last 10-15 years.
