- We believe in infusing value into care through a schedule which sparks achievement, relationships and belonging. Please click here for an inside glimpse into our most recent School Age Child Care family newsletter. Also, check out the photos below to see engagement in action.
- Families who select All Inclusive Care receive in just one monthly price: Before Care, After Care, and care during half days and most full days off from school. This past spring break, our current School Age Child Care sites headed to the movies, zoo, and more!
- Healthy snacks are included and shared daily.

Example: Services completed in September are charged to the payment method on file on October 1. Financial Assistance: Aid is not a handout, but a helping hand. The Y is here for people of all walks of life - when things are OK and when there are problems. In time of need, Y financial assistance helps with a partnership of assistance. Each participant will pay a part of the fees, based upon gross household income and the specific needs of the individual or family.
